

Women's Artistic Technical Assembly

Technical Assembly format as follows

- Arrival of club members
- Clubs register and voting cards handed out
- Christine Brockbank introduces the meeting and outlines the proceedings
- Christine Brockbank will conduct an open drawing of lots as to which of the nominees speaks first
- Each candidate is given up to 15 minutes, to present their nomination case which Christine Brockbank will time for fairness. There will be 5 - 10 minutes for questions.
(presentation can be given verbally and with slides as necessary)
- Upon completion of the final candidates presentation, Christine Brockbank will then conduct the vote
- Whilst the vote is being counted, Bernice Negri will answer any questions on her report and/or accounts of the last nine months
- Once the results are counted and verified the vote will be announced by Christine Brockbank
- The newly elected Chairman is invited to say a few words and to then open the floor for discussion on the future of the discipline (if they so wish)
